Contents

1. Relation of Food to Health 1
2. Constituents of Food and its Functions 8
3. Food Requirements 65
4. Preservation and Storage 73
5. Different Methods of Cooking and their Effect on Food and its Constituents 78
6. Nutrition Education: Responsibilities, Opportunities and Applied Nutrition Programmes 82
7. Nutritional Requirements of Expectant Mothers and Lactating Mothers 89
8. Nutritional Requirements during Infancy 96
9. Nutrition for Children and Teenagers 106
10. Therapeutic Diets 115
11. Overweight 133
12. Underweight 139
13. Diet in Fevers, Tuberculosis and in Burns 143
14. Dietary Modifications in Gastrointestinal Disorders 147
15. Dietary Modifications in the Liver Disorders 156
16. Diet in the Diseases of the Cardiovascular System ... 162
17. Diet in Diabetes Mellitus 169
18. Diet in the Diseases of the Kidney 181
19. Appendices
    - I Name of the Food Items in Indian Languages 188
    - II Definition and Terms Associated with Nutrition 196
    - III The Average and Range of Desirable Weights for Height in Adults 201
    - IV The Nutrition Assessment Schedule 204
    - V Indian Vegetables and Fruits 205
    - VI Nutritive Value of Indian Foods 213
    - VII Summary of Therapeutic Diets 267

    References 269

    Index 271