Contents

1. Dental caries 1
2. Occlusion, periodontal and biologic considerations 4
3. Diagnosis and treatment planning 5
4. Preliminary considerations in operative dentistry 6
5. Isolation of the operating field 7
6. Operatory asepsis 9
7. Cutting instruments 10
8. Contact and contours matrices, retainers and wedges 12
9. Principles of cavity preparation 14
10. Interim restorations 17
11. Silver amalgam 18
12. Cast restoration 22
13. Pins in restorative dentistry 26
14. Direct filling gold 28
15. Bonding 30
16. Composite resin 32
17. Glass ionomer cement 36
18. Dental ceramics 38
19. Colour and its applications 40
20. Age changes in tooth and esthetic techniques 41
21. Finishing and polishing 44
22. Microleakage 45
23. Liners, varnishes, bases and luting cements 46

24. Scope of endodontics 47
25. Pathologies of pulp and periapex 49
26. Endodontic microbiology and rationale in endodontics 51
27. Diagnostic procedures 53
28. Differential diagnosis of orofacial pain and its management 55
29. Sterilization 56
30. Endodontic instruments 57
31. Internal anatomy and access cavity preparation 60
32. Working length determination (endometrics) 62
33. Irrigation and intra canal medicaments 64
34. Cleaning and shaping of root canal system 67
35. Obturation of root canal system 69
36. Endodontic emergencies 72
37. Procedural accidents 73
38. Endodontic failures and retreatment 74
39. Surgical endodontics 75
40. Endodontic periodontal relationship 78
41. Restoration of endodontically treated teeth 79
42. Management of traumatic injuries 81
43. Bleaching of discolored teeth 83
44. Tooth resorption 85
45. Tooth hypersensitivity 86
46. Lasers in endodontics 87
47. Pediatric and geriatric endodontics and vital pulp therapy 88
48. Pulp response to caries and dental procedures 90