Chapter 1 Preterm Prelabor Rupture of Membranes: An Introduction 1
Shyam V Desai, Milind R Shah

- Definitions 3
- Pathophysiology of PPROM 4
- Prediction of Preterm PROM 5
- Diagnosis 6
- Management 7

Chapter 2 Etiology of Preterm Premature Rupture of the Membranes (PPROM) .. .. .10
Rubina Sohail

- Anatomy of Fetal Membranes 11
- Pathophysiology of PPROM 11
- Etiology of PPROM 12
  - Infection 12
  - Overdistention of the Uterus 14
  - Cervical Causes 14
  - Risk Factors for PPROM 14
  - Maternal Demographic Factors 15
  - Nutritional Status 16
  - Social and Behavioral Factors 16
  - Past Obstetric History 16
  - Current Pregnancy Characteristics 17
  - Biological and Genetic Markers 17

Chapter 3 Diagnosis of Preterm Rupture of Membranes 22
Kohinoor Begum

- Diagnosis of PROM 22
- History 22
- Clinical examination 23
  - Abdominal Examination 23
  - Digital Examination 23
  - Diagnosis is Confirmed 23
  - Other Important Means of Diagnosis 24
  - Importance of Diagnosis of PPROM 27

Chapter 4 Management of PPROM at 34 to 36 Weeks of Gestation.. .. .. .30
Parikshit Tank, MV Kapadia, JD Tank

- Clinical Dilemmas in Low Resource Settings 30
- Etiology 30
- Pathology 31
- Diagnosis 31
- Evaluation 32
  - Obstetric Decision-Making 33
  - Antenatal Steroids 34
  - Antibiotic Therapy 34
  - Obstetric Management 35
- Special Situations 36

Chapter 5 Management of PPROM at 32 to 34 Weeks 39
Vorapong Phupong

- Management of PPROM at 32 to 34 weeks 39
- Expectant Management 42
  - Timing and Route of Delivery 44

Chapter 6 Management of PPROM at 28 to 32 Weeks Pregnancy 47
MB Bellad, Roopa M Bellad

- How to approach? 47
- Initial Evaluation 48
  - What is the Usual Course of PPROM? 48
  - Counseling 49
- Contraindications for Expectant Management 49
  - Expectant Management 49
  - Medical Management 49
  - Monitoring of Women with PPROM Who are Managed Expectantly 51
- What to do if cerclage in situ with PPROM? 51
  - Mode of Delivery. 52
  - Neonatal Aspects 53

Chapter 7 Use of Antibiotics in Preterm Prelabor Rupture of Membranes. .. .. .58
Joong Shin Park, Seung Mi Lee

- Efficacy of Antibiotics 59
- Antibiotics Regimen 60
  - Type of Antibiotics 60
  - Duration of Antibiotics 60
- Group B Streptococcal Prophylaxis 62

Chapter 8 Antenatal Corticosteroids in Preterm Prelabor Rupture of Membranes.. .. .. .65
Malik Goonewardene

- Pathophysiology of Idiopathic Respiratory Distress Syndrome and Chronic Pulmonary Dysplasia 65
- Antenatal Corticosteroids: Single Course 66
- Antenatal Corticosteroids: Repeat doses 68

Chapter 9 Management of the Fetus and Neonate Born to Mother with Prelabor Rupture of Membranes.. .. .. .72
Atul Deokar

- Incidence 72
- Maternal and Fetal Surveillance 73
- Mode of Delivery 73
- Management 73
- Antibiotic Recommendations 74
- Antenatal Steroids 74
- The Preterm Baby in a Low Resource Setting 75
- Care of the Normal Newborn at Birth 76
  - Postnatal Interventions for Improving Neonatal Health 76
  - Thermal Protection 77
  - Early and Exclusive Breastfeeding 77
- Care of the Preterm Newborn 77
- Major Risks of Early Preterm Delivery 78
- Respiratory Distress Syndrome 79
  - Recent Advances in Management of RDS 79
- Necrotizing Enterocolitis 79
  - Treatment 80
- Retinopathy of Prematurity 80
  - Management 81
  - Surgical 81

Chapter 10 Magnesium Sulfate in the Prevention of Cerebral Palsy in Preterm Fetuses.. .. .. .83
Walfrido W Sumpaico

- Safety and Cost-Effectiveness of the Trials 87
- Safety 87
- Cost-Effectiveness 87
- Take Home Messages 90
- Pediatric Outcomes 90
- Maternal Outcomes 90

Chapter 11 Prevention of Preterm Prelabor Rupture of Membranes .. .. .93

Jaideep Malhotra, Neharika Malhotra, Narendra Malhotra, Ruchika Garg

- Risk Factors and Pathophysiology 93
- Maternal factors 93
- – Fetal Factors 94
- Prediction of Preterm Labor is Difficult 95
  - – Identifying the High-risk Factors for Premature Rupture of the Fetal Membranes 95
- Strategies to Prevent PROM 96
