

NEW RELEASE

Principles of

Forensic Medicine & Toxicology

As per the Competency-based Medical Education Curriculum (NMC)

Author: Rajesh Bardale

Full Color | Paper Back | 3/e, 2021 | 680 Pages | 8.5" x 11"

9789390595419 | Price: 1195 | Discount Cat: A

ABOUT THE BOOK

The third edition is prepared as per revised undergraduate curriculum 2019 prescribed by National Medical Commission (NMC) and include competency-based medical education (CBME). Many chapters include Clinical–Forensic Correlation to facilitate easy learning. The text has been updated extensively considering the recent amendments and landmark judgements given by the honourable Supreme Court of India.

KEY FEATURES

- The book is prepared as per new curriculum—Competency-based Medical Education (CBME) 2019. Competencies are added in every chapter. In most of the chapter Clinical-Forensic Correlation is included.
- More than 400 original/clinical color photographs helps the reader to understand the subject.
- Numerous line diagrams and flowcharts are the key components helps to understand the basic concept.
- Inclusion of various recent Supreme Court Judgements in various topics, such as consent, negligence, euthanasia, etc., are distinct features of this book.
- Forensic osteology, telemedicine, Consumer Protection Act and indemnity insurance, biomedical waste management, euthanasia and advance medical directives, emerging technology in forensic medicine and forensic science are unique chapter included in this book.
- Topics on toxicology have been thoroughly revised with inclusion of new topics, such as poisoning due to herbicides, plant growth regulators, grain preservatives.

READERSHIP

- Medical undergraduate and postgraduate students.