Contents

Chapter 1 Health Care Delivery System in India 1

Concept and evolution of health centers 2
Health record keeping 6
Effect on community health 7
In search of 'pole star' 8
Health need, demand and forecasting: a relook 16

Chapter 2 Primary Health Care Reviewing 33

Major activities 35
Aspects to be covered 36
Objectives of a review 36
Benefits of a review 37
A strategy for basic services 38
Community participation/partnership 45
Auxiliaries—the link to the next level 49
Referral/supervisory levels 50
National level 51
The young child 52
Management trends of public sector health organization 63

Chapter 3 Transition in Health Sector 69

Meaning of health for all 70
International concern 71
International health policy 71
Concepts of management in health sector 72
Need of management in the health sector 74
Functions and components of health management 74

Assessment of community health needs 77
Understanding resources 78
Matching health care activities to resources 80

Chapter 4 Human Resource Management 86

Functions of HRM 87
Interview 87
Involvement 88
Forming own opinion 88
Empathy 89
Troop games 89
Be a good listener 90
Clarity in orders 90
Feedback 90
Manner of speaking 90
Setting personal example 91
Self-discipline 91
Professionalism 91
Road map of HRM management 91
Positive outlook 92
Upholding the authority of senior personnel 93
Develop self-confidence 93
Group 93
Group roles 94
Team 95
Terms used in HRM 96
The managerial skills 99
Negotiation skills 105
Objectives 111
Managing the negotiation process 120
Negotiation skills, while dealing with difficult people 124
Johari awareness window to evaluate the self 127

Chapter 5 Communication, Motivation and Supervision 139

The model of communication 140
Planning communication 143
Communication in health care 149
Barriers of communication 151
Unity of command 160
Types of supervision 165
Qualities of a supervisor 166
Span of supervision 168

Chapter 6 Organizational Design, Structure and Culture 177

Organizational design 178
Organizational structure 178
Strategies for effective staff performance 184
Influencing organization 206

Chapter 7 Understanding Organizations 212

The classical approach in understanding organizations 213
Power in organization 229

Chapter 8 Leadership and Art of Directing 237

Strategic leadership 239
Performance 245
Interrelation between the leader and organization 246
The power of leadership 252
Group leadership 252

Chapter 9 Management Information and Decision Support System 277

Ontology 289

Chapter 10 Material Management in Health 306

Purpose 307

Material management department 308
Goals 309
Standards 309
Materials management challenges 310
Materials management week 310
Manpower 311
Process of material management 311
Dead bodies and their disposal management 339

Chapter 11 Financial Management in Health 348

Sources of health funds 353
Activity-based costing for health care institutions 353
Difference between finance function and accounts function 355
Short-term and long-term objectives of financial management 356
Concept of "inflation" (wholesale price index and consumer price index) 357
Budgeting from below (bottom up) 358
Departmental strategies 358
Padding 359
Hospital finances 360
Accounting review 363
Limitations of accounting 364
Cash flow 370
Sources of funds 379
Capital 379
Fixed assets 381
The accounting procedures manual 382
Maintaining effective controls 382
Financial computerization 383
Electronic records management 383
Medical coding 383
Productivity 384
Telemedicine 384
Medical tourism 385
Chart of accounts 386
WHO guide to cost-effectiveness analysis 394
Zero-based budgeting (ZBB) 395

National health entitlement: should health care be absolutely free? 397

Chapter 12 Time Management in Health 409

Six steps in time management 411
Using time performance charts and techniques 415
Network techniques 417
Program evaluation and review technique (PERT) 419
Finding the critical path 424
Early start and early finish times 426
Late start and late finish times 427
Total slack 427
Free slack 427
Expected times for activities 428
The variability of activity time 430

Index 435